The Fruit(s) of Repentance

The Christian who falls into sin after baptism has a way back into the grace of God in Christ whenever they are again converted. This is repentance (Jeremiah 3:12). Repentance has two parts. The first part is contrition, which are the terrors that strike the conscience through the knowledge of sin (Romans 3:20). The other part is faith, which is born of the Gospel (Romans 10:17) or the Absolution and believes that for Christ's sake, sins are forgiven. (Augsburg Confession XXII; par. 5; Readers Edition)

This repentance necessarily brings about good works, which are the fruit of repentance (Galatians 5:22-23). The Bible teaches that the Holy Spirit can be lost after baptism, while at the same time teaching that, through repentance the one who has fallen from God's grace in Christ, can once again return to Christ. Fruits follow faith, but fruits do not precede faith. If faith is missing, there will be no fruit, because the tree is bad. If the tree is already good, the fruit will follow. Jesus says: A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit (Matthew 7:18). The tree (person) must first be made good before there will be good fruit.

What are some of these fruits of repentance? Peace is one of the fruits mentioned in Galatians 5:22. Jesus tells us what this peace is: Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid (John 14:27). This is the peace of God that is only understood by faith through the work of the Holy Spirit. This peace also goes out to others (Joshua 9:15).

Kindness is another fruit from Galatians 5:22. Blessed be the Lord, for He has shown me His marvelous kindness in a strong city (Psalm 31:21). This kindness of the Lord comes in times of adversity. Thus, we are to practice kindness to our neighbor, in the truth and love of God's word (Proverbs 31:26).

Faithfulness is yet another fruit in Galatians 5:22. The Lord rewards every man for his righteousness and faithfulness, for the Lord gave you into my hand today, and I would not put out my hand against the Lord's anointed (1 Samuel 26:23...when David spared Saul his life). God rewards this faithfulness because it is trust in Jesus Christ, the One, true, and only God.

Blessings in Christ Jesus these Christmas and Epiphany seasons,
Pastor

Apostles' Creed:

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth. And in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.
