Good Friday Tenebrae Vespers Service March 29, Year of Our → Lord 2024

Behold the Lamb of God, Who Takes Away the Sin of the World

Jesus, the Lamb of God, is led to the slaughter of His cross as the sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the world. "Despised and rejected by men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief" (Is. 53:3), He is the righteous Servant who justifies many by His innocent suffering and death. He bears our griefs and carries our sorrows; He is wounded for our transgressions; He is crushed for our iniquities; He suffers our chastisement, so that "with His stripes we are healed" (Is. 53:4–5). As the Son of God, He fulfills the Law for us in human flesh, and so fulfills the Scriptures (John 19:7, 24). For in Christ, "God was reconciling the whole world to Himself, not counting their trespasses against them" (2 Cor. 5:19).

→ A Word About Christ's Suffering →

That Christ was lifted up on a cross thereby fulfills what is proclaimed in Isa. 53: Behold, My Servant will be lifted up and will be highly regarded. And Christ hereby wants to declare that He actually had to deal with His Father in heaven, to whom He now had presented Himself as a sacrifice. When a heave-offering was brought to God in the Old Testament, it first had to be raised up high and thus be sacrificed. Christ also wanted to fulfill this type and allow Himself to be lifted up on the tree of the cross.

By the fact that Christ bowed His head on the cross, He thereby intended to indicate His love towards us; namely, that for our sake and because of His great love toward us He Himself hung there, as He Himself thus explains in John 12: When I will be lifted up from the earth, then I will draw all of you to Myself

That Christ extended His hands, He did in order to embrace us out of love and to bring to Himself under His cross both Jews and Gentiles so that they might be sprinkled by His saving blood and be washed from sin.

Opening Versicles

- P O Lord, open my lips,
- and my mouth will declare Your praise.
- P Make haste, O God, to deliver me;
- make haste to help me, O Lord.

  Praise to You, O Christ, Lamb of our salvation.

Psalm 22

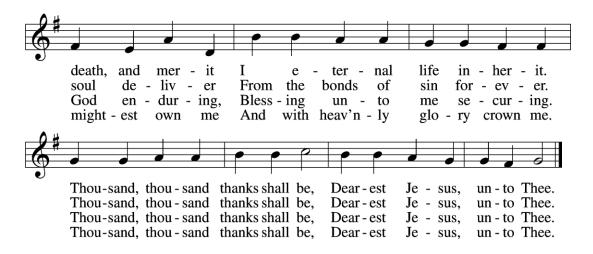

- P But you, O LORD, do not be far off!
  O you my help, come quickly to my aid!
  My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
  Why are you so far from saving me, from the words of my groaning?
- © O my God, I cry by day, but you do not answer, and by night, but I find no rest.
- P Yet you are holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel.
- In you our fathers trusted; they trusted, and you delivered them.
- P To you they cried and were rescued; in you they trusted and were not put to shame.
- But I am a worm and not a man, scorned by mankind and despised by the people.
- P All who see me mock me; they make mouths at me; they wag their heads;
- "He trusts in the LORD; let him deliver him; let him rescue him, for he delights in him!"
- P Yet you are he who took me from the womb; you made me trust you at my mother's breasts.
- On you was I cast from my birth, and from my mother's womb you have been my God.

- P Be not far from me, for trouble is near, and there is none to help.
- Many bulls encompass me; strong bulls of Bashan surround me;
- P they open wide their mouths at me, like a ravening and roaring lion.
- I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax; it is melted within my breast;
- P my strength is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws; you lay me in the dust of death.
- © For dogs encompass me; a company of evildoers encircles me; they have pierced my hands and feet—
- P I can count all my bones they stare and gloat over me;
- C they divide my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.
- P But you, O LORD, do not be far off!
  O you my help, come quickly to my aid!
- Deliver my soul from the sword, my precious life from the power of the dog!
- P Save me from the mouth of the lion!
  You have rescued me from the horns of the wild oxen!
- I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you:
- P You who fear the LORD, praise him!
  All you offspring of Jacob, glorify him, and stand in awe of him, all you offspring of Israel!
- To r he has not despised or abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, and he has not hidden his face from him, but has heard, when he cried to him.

- P From you comes my praise in the great congregation; my vows I will perform before those who fear him.
- The afflicted shall eat and be satisfied; those who seek him shall praise the LORD! May your hearts live forever!
- P All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations shall worship before you.
- G For kingship belongs to the LORD, and he rules over the nations.
- P All the prosperous of the earth eat and worship; before him shall bow all who go down to the dust, even the one who could not keep himself alive.
- © Posterity shall serve him; it shall be told of the Lord to the coming generation;
- P they shall come and proclaim his righteousness to a people yet unborn, that he has done it.
- P But you, O LORD, do not be far off!
  O you my help, come quickly to my aid!

Hymn: 420 Christ, the Life of All the Living

- Thou hast suffered men to bruise Thee,
  That from pain I might be free;
  Falsely did Thy foes accuse Thee:
  Thence I gain security;
  Comfortless Thy soul did languish
  Me to comfort in my anguish.
  Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
  Dearest Jesus, unto Thee.
- 6 Thou hast suffered great affliction
  And hast borne it patiently,
  Even death by crucifixion,
  Fully to atone for me;
  Thou didst choose to be tormented
  That my doom should be prevented.
  Thousand, thousand thanks shall be,
  Dearest Jesus, unto Thee.
- 7 Then, for all that wrought my pardon, For Thy sorrows deep and sore, For Thine anguish in the Garden, I will thank Thee evermore, Thank Thee for Thy groaning, sighing, For Thy bleeding and Thy dying, For that last triumphant cry, And shall praise Thee, Lord, on high.

P Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Blessèd are all who take refuge in him.

© Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?

- The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against his anointed, saying,
- C "Let us burst their bonds apart and cast away their cords from us."
- P He who sits in the heavens laughs; the Lord holds them in derision.
- Then he will speak to them in his wrath, and terrify them in his fury, saying,
- P "As for me, I have set my King on Zion, my holy hill."
- I will tell of the decree:

The LORD said to me, "You are my Son; today I have begotten you.

- P Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession.
- Q You shall break them with a rod of iron and dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."
- P Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth.
- Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
- P Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, for his wrath is quickly kindled. Blessèd are all who take refuge in him.
- P Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling Blessèd are all who take refuge in him.

Hymn: 423 Jesus, Refuge of the Weary

Psalm 27

P Cast me not off; forsake me not, O God of my salvation!

Text and tune: Public domain

P The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?

The LORD is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When evildoers assail me to eat up my flesh,

my adversaries and foes, it is they who stumble and fall.

P Though an army encamp against me, my heart shall not fear;

though war arise against me, yet I will be confident.

- One thing have I asked of the LORD, that will I seek after:
  that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to inquire in his temple.
- P For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble; he will conceal me under the cover of his tent; he will lift me high upon a rock.
- And now my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent sacrifices with shouts of joy;
  I will sing and make melody to the LORD.
- P Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud; be gracious to me and answer me!
- You have said, "Seek my face."
  My heart says to you,
  "Your face, LORD, do I seek."
- P Hide not your face from me.

  Turn not your servant away in anger,

  O you who have been my help.

  Cast me not off; forsake me not,

  O God of my salvation!
- For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the LORD will take me in.
- P Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me on a level path because of my enemies.
- Give me not up to the will of my adversaries; for false witnesses have risen against me, and they breathe out violence.
- P I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living!

- Wait for the LORD; be strong, and let your heart take courage; wait for the LORD!
- P Cast me not off; forsake me not, O God of my salvation!

Passion Reading

John 19:1-16

P The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John, the 19th chapter.

Then Pilate took Jesus and flogged him. And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on his head and arrayed him in a purple robe. They came up to him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and struck him with their hands. Pilate went out again and said to them, "See, I am bringing him out to you that you may know that I find no guilt in him." So Jesus came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to them, "Behold the man!" When the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, "Crucify him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves and crucify him, for I find no guilt in him." The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to that law he ought to die because he has made himself the Son of God." When Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid. He entered his headquarters again and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer. So Pilate said to him, "You will not speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you and authority to crucify you?" Jesus answered him, "You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been given you from above. Therefore he who delivered me over to you has the greater sin."

From then on Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out, "If you release this man, you are not Caesar's friend. Everyone who makes himself a king opposes Caesar." So when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called The Stone Pavement, and in Aramaic Gabbatha. Now it was the day of Preparation of the Passover. It was about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Behold your King!" They cried out, "Away with him, away with him, crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar." So he delivered him over to them to be crucified.

- 5 What language shall I borrow To thank Thee, dearest Friend, For this Thy dying sorrow, Thy pity without end? O make me Thine forever! And should I fainting be, Lord, let me never, never, Outlive my love for Thee.
- 6 My Savior, be Thou near me When death is at my door; Then let Thy presence cheer me, Forsake me nevermore! When soul and body languish, O leave me not alone, But take away mine anguish By virtue of Thine own!
- 7 Be Thou my consolation, My shield, when I must die; Remind me of Thy passion When my last hour draws nigh. Mine eyes shall then behold Thee, Upon Thy cross shall dwell, My heart by faith enfold Thee. Who dieth thus dies well.

Passion Reading

John 19:16-42

P So they took Jesus, and he went out, bearing his own cross, to the place called the place of a skull, which in Aramaic is called Golgotha. There they crucified him, and with him two others, one on either side, and Jesus between them. Pilate also wrote an inscription and put it on the cross. It read, "Jesus of Nazareth, the King of the Jews." Many of the Jews read this inscription, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city, and it was written in Aramaic, in Latin, and in Greek. So the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but rather, 'This man said, I am King of the Jews." Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written." When the soldiers had crucified Jesus, they took his garments and divided them into in one piece from top to bottom, so they said to one another, "Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it to see whose it shall be." This was to fulfill the Scripture which says,

"They divided my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots."

So the soldiers did these things, but standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing nearby, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

After this, Jesus, knowing that all was now finished, said (to fulfill the Scripture), "I thirst." A jar full of sour wine stood there, so they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop branch and held it to his mouth. When Jesus had received the sour wine, he said, "It is finished," and he bowed his head and gave up his spirit.

Since it was the day of Preparation, and so that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), the Jews asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs. But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. He who saw it has borne witness—his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth—that you also may believe. For these things took place that the Scripture might be fulfilled: "Not one of his bones will be broken." And again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they have pierced."

After these things Joseph of Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took away his body. Nicodemus also, who earlier had come to Jesus by night, came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about seventy-five pounds in weight. So they took the body of Jesus and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb in which no one had yet been laid. So because of the Jewish day of Preparation, since the tomb was close at hand, they laid Jesus there.

P O Lord, have mercy on us.

C Thanks be to God.
